IF WE DON'T LOOK GOOD . . .

This year's administration and office staff consisted of some very fine people. Both principal, Brother Foster and vice principal, Miss Patti Hanson returned to SMR with ambitious hopes for a terrific year.

Sister Judy Dutka, new to SMR, teaches math, works with administration and handles detentions.

Thanks to Ms. Corina Yanez and Mrs. Rose O'Connor, such things as absence slips, tardies, and typing those letters we received in the mail all ran smoothly.

These people are the foundation of SMR. They've kept things running smoothly for the students and faculty. And without them we just wouldn't look good.

Brother Foster takes time to read through the Abacus.

Mrs. O'Connor "stuffs it."

Patti Hanson says, "I'd like to share another poem with you."

Corina smiles for the camera as she "reaches out and touches someone."

"Come on Sister Judy, can't you figure out the problem?"

THEN THEY WON'T LOOK GOOD!

"Need help?"

"Need someone to talk to?"

"How about planning a future?"

St. Mary's of Redford is very fortunate to have two fantastic people working in guidance. Monica Zakrzewski and Pat Meagher specialize in bright futures and get students off to a good start. If they're not helping seniors, then they're helping them with teachers, schedule problems or just life itself. They certainly make us look good, and most of all, they make us feel good!

Senior Ed Theile putting his "John Hancock" on a college application.

Sister Pat "punks out".

Monica helping out with Homecoming '81.

"Don't take my picture today", says Monica. Sorry Monical

Sister Pat gives a nice smile after a long tiring day.

CLASS PLUS!

St. Mary's is a school noted for its sports, its academics, its fine staff, its fabulous students and, of course, its maintenance staff, whose valiant efforts kept our school clean and mechanically functioning throughout the "81-82" school year.

Those deserving praise for this are Mrs. Louella Campbell, Mr. John Gilmore, and Mr. Ray Klosowski. With the help of these people SMR can proudly say, "WE ARE #1"

Ray and John, working together and getting things done.

Louella Campbell stops for a smile.

Ray Klosowski, keeping things moving.

WHAT A LUNCH! WHAT A LUNCH! WHAT A LUNCH! LUNCH! LUNCH!

This chant was commonly heard in our Commons Room this year. The overwhelming response to the new lunch program can be attributed to our new lunch staff, headed by Mr. Joe Alston, who also ran the book store and taught Accounting for our Business Department.

Mr. Alston, with the help of Mrs. Mary Jane Corby, Ms. Patricia Taylor, and Miss Anna Magee, met his goals of more food variety, better nutritional value, quicker service, and cleaner atmosphere. What A Lunch!

Mr. Alston "Cook's his lunches proud!"

"I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream", says Ms. Taylor.

Students anxiously await their turn in the lunch line.

Mrs. Corby's pouring her heart out for lunch.

HELLO MOTHER

Through the loving, guiding hands of our own Women's Club, (Formerly the Mother's Guild) SMR had its best year. For a very successful Service Auction and many other small but important things, we thank the Women's Club for all their hard work.

The Women's Club had Co-Presidents this year. They were Pat Moses and Marie Lawson. Apologies to Mrs. Moses for her picture not being available.

Women's Club members listen intently to the business at hand.

Mrs. Hendershot and Mrs. Loftus are misbehaving at the meeting again.

The Women's Club admits that the meetings aren't all work.

HELLO FATHER

SMR would never be complete without our Dad's Club, whose fund-raising efforts and extra-curricular contributions to our athletic program made the 81-82 school year the finest in SMR history.

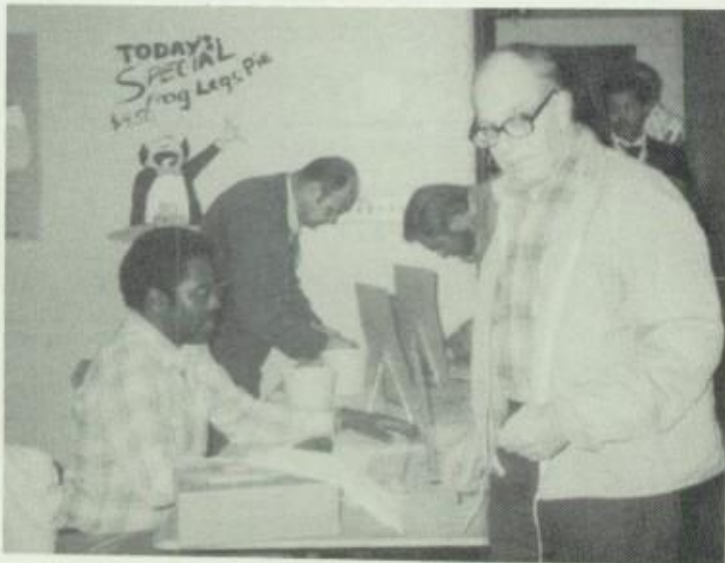

The Dad's Club officers this year were: President, Lou Kotula, Vice-President, Dan MacDonald, Secretary, Herman Bloodsaw, and Treasurer, Bob Echols.

We all know who they are. They're the Dads at the football, basketball, volleyball and baseball games, and the ones you see at home.

THANKS DADS!

Dad's Club members sign and file in for the meeting.

Dads get down to business.

PEOPLE WHO NEED,

When one attempts to examine the reason for the success of St. Mary's of Redford, the first place to look is behind the scenes. The priests and 1981-82 School Board worked hard to provide a high standard of education in a Christian atmosphere. These people endlessly worked to ensure that the needs of the High School were met. Our parish priests were Fr. Edward Haggerty, Msgr. Hickey and Fr. Ron Williams. Mr. Ron Nowicki did an outstanding job as our School Board president.

Msgr. Edward Hickey takes time out to pose for the photographer.

"Listen, kids, weekends weren't just made for Michelob, church is always on Sundays," explains Fr. Ron.

"Gee, I'm glad these kids are finally graduating," thinks Fr. Ed.

NEED PEOPLE WHO CARE

Standing: Mr. W. Flemming, Mrs. J. Lemen, Mrs. J. Stafford, Mr. J. Perrone, Mr. C. Garrett. Sitting Mrs. P. Fucinari, Mr. D. Gunther Mr. Ron Nowicki, and Mrs. B. Kerwin.

"Everyone listen, you too, Jeanne Lemen," sighs Clarence Garrett.

Alert and interested faculty members even enjoy School Board meetings.

"Is this the School Board meeting?" asks Mrs. Joanne Emerson.

NEW . . .

The nine new additions to the faculty made this year's staff "even better than before." Ms. Magee, Ms. Fritch, Mr. Bandos, Ms. Ambrose, Ms. Lefforge, Sr. Judy, Sr. Georgene, and Mr. Lindsey were all welcome additions to the staff. And with the efforts of Mr. Alston, the common's room food tastes "just like mom's."

Mrs. Falleri has a twinkle in her eye and a smile on her face.

Eleven year veteran, Ms. Barone wonders why she's still here.

Mr. Alston works in the bookroom, in addition to all his other duties.

Ms. Ambrose flashes her Ultra-Brite smile.

Ms. Magee works hard checking papers.

SMR HAS THE LOOK THAT'S RIGHT!!

When students entered the halls of St. Mary's, they attained a feeling of pleasure, due to the quiet atmosphere and peaceful hallways. Students socialized in the hallways to help ease the pressures brought on by their classes. All students got along well with each other, which was shown when upperclassmen and lower-classmen conversed and joked together without hostility or ill-feelings.

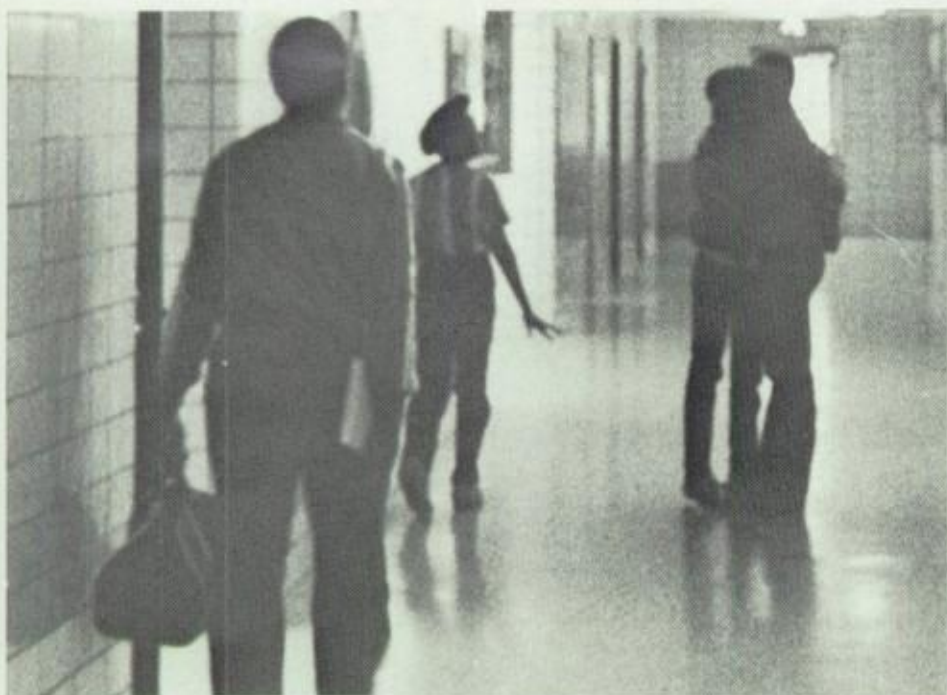

"Can't he take a hint?" thinks Dawn Adams.

Does he always act like that?

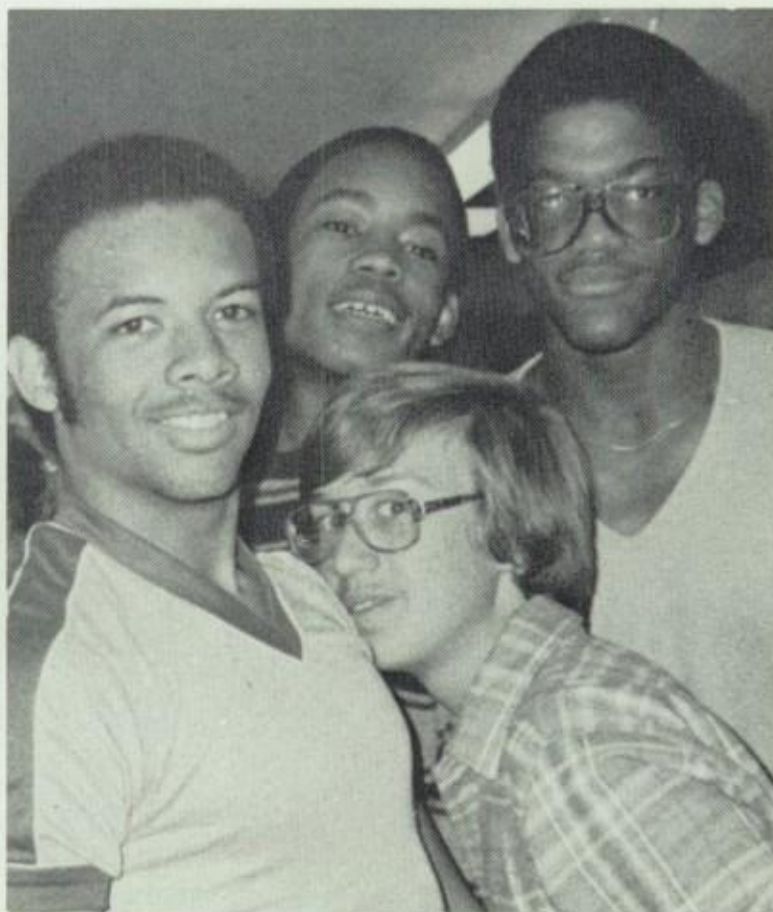

A group of students take time out to pose for the photographer.

A rare moment of peace of SMR.

"What do you mean I'm stupid?", says David Sims to Gary Sibley.

WHEN MRS. DANIEL TALKS

If you've never seen the smiling face of Mrs. Sara Daniel then you haven't been in the St. Mary's library. Mrs. Daniel kept the library organized and up to date this past year. Mrs. Betty Callaghan, Mrs. Betty Maher and Mrs. Diana Jachman, who are all members of the Women's Club, gave their time to work in the library. Mrs. Daniel was a friend and a helper to all who needed assistance.

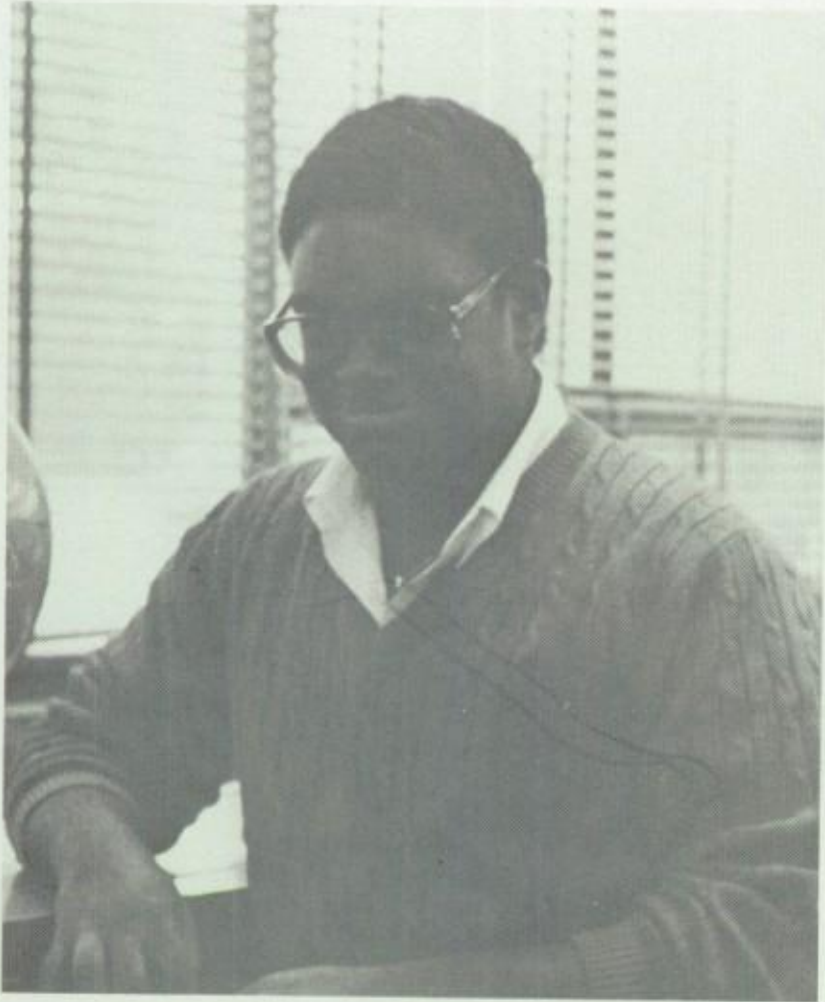

Mrs. Daniel reads, "Miss Piggy's guide for living".

Seniors Katina, Cathy, Kathy, Jenny and Louise finally make it to the library after four years.

EVERYONE LISTENS

Charles Lewis takes time out from his work to smile for the camera.

Robert Distelrath finds pleasure in the library.

Ingrid Davis enjoys the quietness of the library.

Barb, Charles and Cyrus enjoy their time in the library.

MMM, MMM GOOD, MMM, MMM GOOD

SMR's cafeteria, better known as the commons room, underwent many changes this past year. One change was the administrators. Mr. Alston, and Ms. Taylor, Mrs. Corby and Ms. Magee, all worked together in serving the students with enjoyable lunches and a carefree atmosphere in which to eat. Another change was in its meals. A wider variety of food was provided in the menus this year. Finally, the commons room took on a brighter look with its newly acquired tables and murals which were painted on the walls by our own SMR art students.

Senior, Jackie Fouche "brown-bagging" it.

Does Junior, Jimmy Adams have "the munchies"?

"To eat or not to eat, that is the question," thinks Cederic White to himself.

THAT'S WHAT SMR LUNCHES ARE??!

Anne Castle and Janet Vogel share a few laughs while eating their lunch.

COMFORTABLY NUMB

The "Triangle" was the outside smoking area designated for the students. It was open everyday and it gave the students the chance to go outside and do many things, such as play frisbee, smoke a cigarette, or just get some "fresh air." Maintenance of the "Tri" was taken care of by all the thoughtful students who put in time after school in the detention room.

Must be Monday morning.

"Puddly Power."

What's this? Are these students actually studying in the Triangle?

Students come out to the Triangle to "catch a smoke" or just get some "fresh air."

These students take time out to clown around for the photographer.

"Hey, you know I'm the baddest," insists Carol Dotson.

"He's gonna die," thinks Tom Murphy.

David Szold shows us how much of a nature lover he really is.

"What did you call me?" demands Jenny Black.

SOMETIMES YOU FEEL LIKE A NUT...

Assemblies provided a wide-range of activities for students at St. Mary's such as athletics, academics, and mass.

Athletic Pep-Assemblies were coordinated by Mrs. Faletti, who worked at "generating spirit among all the students."

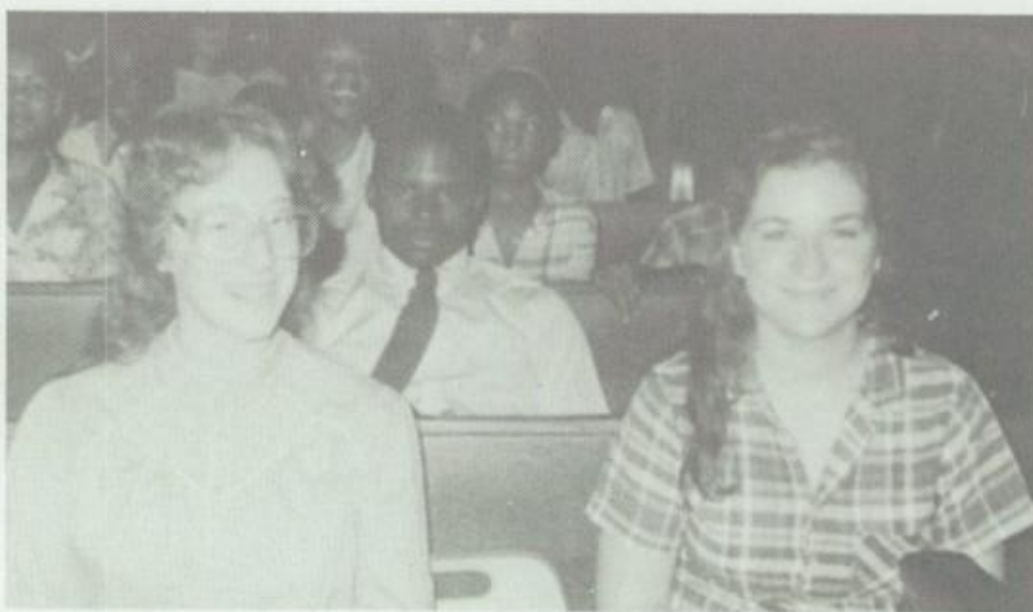

Academic Assemblies were coordinated by Ms. Wilke, and showed a variety of cultural activities and how students should "act in an adult manner as an audience."

Mass services were coordinated by Ms. Taylor and Mrs. Devaney on hopes of focusing on what's going on in the school. The services were to provide students with a "grain of truth and reality that may be applied to their lives." In planning the services, a special effort was made to involve the variety of religious backgrounds of our students.

Assemblies were an enjoyable experience. Everyone looked forward to them as a time for students to come together and get to know one another.

WE HAVE GOT

This year it was decided that there would be a new type of government in the school. This government's title was Student Council. It consisted of four members from each class, whose jobs were to inform the student body of the activities, fund raisers, and special performances the Student Council held. Some of the activities were after school specials, movies, and dances. The goal of Student Council was to unify the whole school. Through the hard work of Barbara Wilke, Rosemary Gass, Debbie Fenske, and Monica Zakrzewski, much was accomplished.

The National Honor Society has been together for twenty-four years and is still going strong. The bright spot of the year was the Annual Induction Dinner. The Induction is only for those Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors that have a high academic average, show leadership, and service to the community. The driving forces behind the NHS were moderators Mrs. Griffing and Mrs. List. The officers consisted of Jim Lavich, Eric Pruitt, Bill Sullivan, and Elise Ciokajlo.

YOU GOTTA HAVE CLUBS!

St. Mary's offered students the chance to participate in extra curricular activities, such as the French Club, the 12 Year Club, Contemporary Chorale, Modern Dance and Outdoors Club. Peer Counseling involved thirteen students who took time out from their busy day to help other students with their problems.

ARE THEY ARTESIANS

This year's play was a huge success. The format was different than ever before; St. Mary's presented eight different comedy sketches by Harold Pinter. Many thanks to Ms. Karen Korpi our director, and Sister Janet who helped behind the scenes.

Jennie Black tells the freshman they only have to pretend their hookers in the play.

Every play needs some sexy legs as shown by Dave and Jim.

Karen and Stephanie don't care if Carol Dotson and Patrick have different views on acting.

We don't care if we have to know our lines by tomorrow- we won't!" explains Dierdre and Correy.

"Listen Bob, you better start coming to rehearsal," says Kim Cunningham.

ART FAIR

St. Mary's art students participated in the regional scholastic art awards competition and earned fourteen awards. The students especially enjoyed going to the art fair this year. The photographers did a nice job of shooting the inspiring artwork.

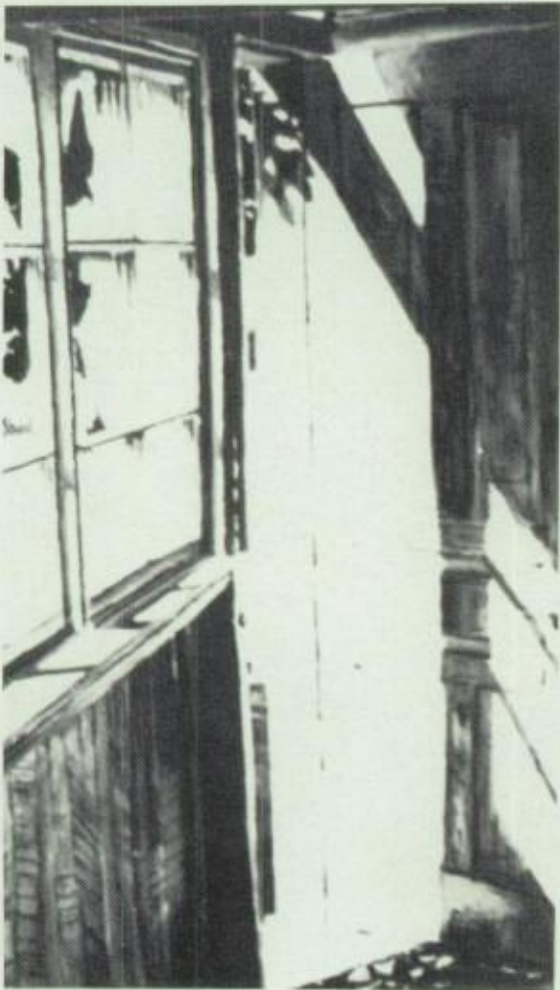

Pepin Carolan's portfolio was selected to go on to New York for national competition. Marianne Lowry won a certificate and a gold key. Pepin Carolan won two blue ribbons, two gold keys, and three certificates. Raymond Yanez won one certificate. David Hudgins won a blue certificate, and two gold keys. James Klemic won a certificate and a blue ribbon.

Photographers Mary Hool and Charles Lewis.

WE DID IT ALL FOR YOU

The Yearbook staff of 1981-'82" really pushed to meet their deadlines. Advisor Ms. Karen Korpi and Co-Editors Edward J. Theile and Daniel J. Behen really kept on top of things to make the book a success. The energetic staff of fifteen worked hard to sell ads and yearbooks, as well as fit the theme of "Commercials" into their spreads. Throughout the hectic year of meeting deadlines, spending long hours after school, and rushing the final copy off to the plant, the Rustic Yearbook Staff proved to the student body that "We Did It All For You."

The Abacus staff again this year, worked hard at keeping the students and the administration aware of what's happening in and around St. Mary's. Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Pat Faletti and Editors in Chief Shantella Huddleston and Robert Distelrath the staff continued to meet the persistent deadlines. The efficient staff, including James Seyfarth, Ad manager, John Stephenson, sports editor, and Bradley Davis, Feature editor and seven other reporters, continued to produce an outstanding paper.

HOMECOMING

The St. Mary's of Redford Homecoming game was one of the most exciting football games of the season.

The Rustics played a very tough game against St. Clement. They put forth a great effort and with the assistance of Head Coach Keith Froelich and Captain Greg Smith, the Rustics worked very hard at keeping up the team's spirit.

At halftime the Rustics were leading with a score of 16-8. Though they were supported by a loud and over-excited crowd who cheered them on to the very last second, the Rustics were defeated by one point with a final score of 23-22.

I'M A PEPPER

This year's SMR football team tackled through a somewhat difficult season under the coaching abilities of Mr. Keith Froelich. Mr. Froelich, with the help of a few other trainers, built a determined Rustic team. In spite of several unfortunate injuries, the team continued their struggle.

The strenuous game of football is loved by the players and the coaches. This was the main factor for the unity that the Rustics expressed.

Even though the Rustic 1981-82 football team finished with a 4-4 record, they will still remain in the hearts of the SMR student body and faculty.

RUNNERS GOING STRONG

Rustic fall runners had shown a good sense of sportsmanship. Danilo Milich coached 5 females and 3 males. Two of our seniors, Ron Simpson and Bill Sullivan, won medals in the invitationals. Ron Simpson won the regionals, cities, and states. The girls team shows a lot of potential and they will return next year. We should be proud of them for giving their foremost effort.

Doing what we do best.

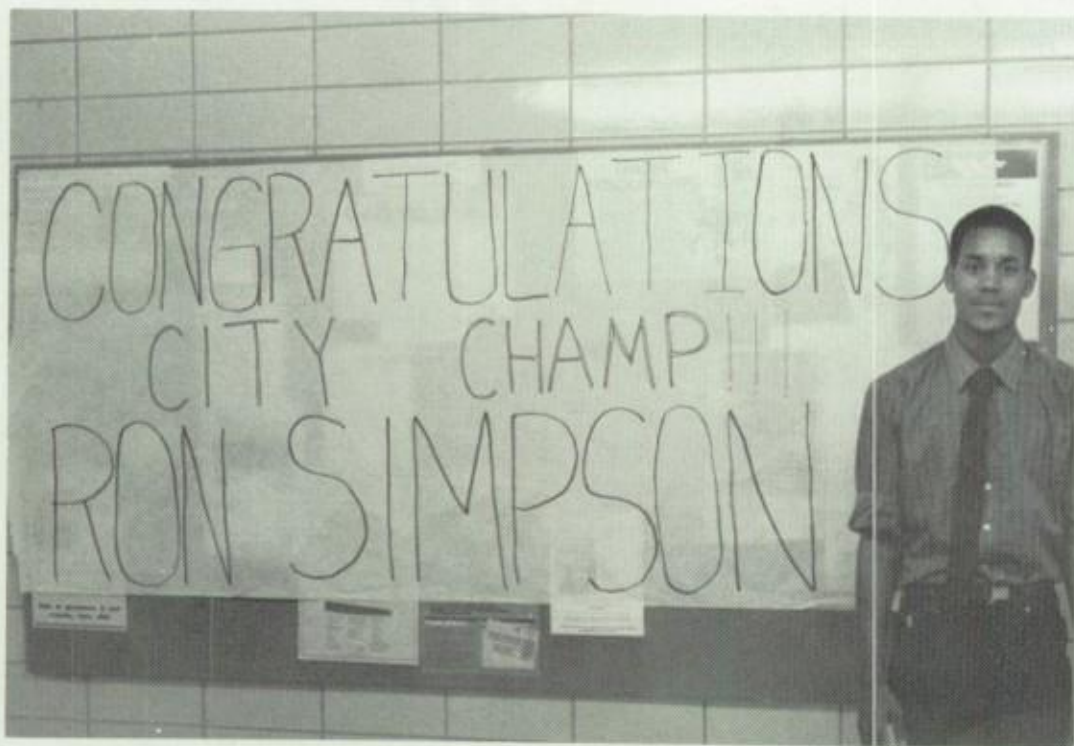

Running is not only for men, but for women, too.

BUMP, SET, SPIKE

The Varsity Volleyball team had a successful season this year. They placed third in their league with six wins and five losses. The team was led well this year with the returning coach Mary Jo Evans and the three-yr. experience of Karen Castle. Juniors, Julie Della Mora, Anne Castle, Patricia Chirio, Lisa Fucinari, Julie Evens, and Barb Distelrath aided the team with their experienced skills. With the fresh insight of Mary Lou Theile and four freshmen, Deirdre Durney, Veronica Lowry, Julie Emery, and Laura Sullivan, the Lady Rustics became a well rounded team. The Junior Varsity team coached by Danica Milich consisted of Lesley Battle, Patricia Brown, Kathleen Emerson, Crystal Spikes, Cory Katula, Stephanie Katula, Jean Della Mora, Sybil Collins, and Melodie Hackworth. Their record was three wins and four losses.

Anne Castle and Julie Emery are determined to block Deirdre Durney's spike.

RUSTICS

The girls' 1981-82 basketball team had its best season in five years. The girls placed third in the Catholic League with an over-all record of 11-6. Junior Jane Hart also made All League. With the loss of only three seniors, Coach Nancy Hieber believes that next years team will be even better.

"Here it comes," thinks Candace Waterman.

FEELING FIRED UP . . .

This year the J.V. Basketball team really tried hard to go far, but unfortunately, did not succeed that well with wins. Under the coaching of Curts Harvey, the team, overall, played well.

The Freshmen B-Ball team, on the other hand, played an excellent season, under the coaching of Ken James. Our new players to the school did a good job and will surely succeed further in B-Ball. Their overall record was 12-2.

GO FOR THE GUSTO!" . . .

This year the Rustic Varsity Basketball team showed an excellent performance in real team ball. Under the coaching of Scott Hammond the team posted an undefeated season of 16-0. Every game they played, they played as a team, working together to strive to achieve the best in their basketball performances. And they got better and better at every game.

No one ever thought they would finish a season of 16 consecutive wins. It was a pleasure, an excitement and a honor to be there, to support the team as much as possible. And now the season is over with, and all we have are the sweet memories of that mighty blue and white basketball team that tore up the court and called the games their own as soon as the clock started.

Senior Charles Crump "shoots it up".

For a quick timeout Coach Hammond reviews the plays.

"Oh no you don't, I've got the hold on this ball", says Kevin Scott.

Senior Aubin Williams jumps up for another rebound.

INTRAMURAL

Intramural Basketball at SMR has been a long standing tradition. The '82 season was a good one with well matched teams.

Mr. Danilo Milich supervised the season as well as refereed each game. Here are some pre-game and post-game shots.

Look out! He's smiling.

Terry Ward and Jeff Gisstenar are just hangin' out.

Ricky Lester's showing his talent.

BASKETBALL

David Jackson shows Ken Griffin the finer points.

Post-game activities.

Ricky Doughton shows the photographer how "BAD" he is.

Intramural stars Kyer Bowie, Reggie Fields, Dennis Gibson, and Brian Carter shine.

ALL TEMP CHEER

"R-O-W-D-I-E That's the way we spell Rowdie." The Varsity and J.V. Cheerleaders gave all the spirit they had and more. The J.V. squad had two unique cheerleaders, Bob Distelrath and John (Rock) Stephenson.

The Pom Pon squad showed us their spirit and new moves. They all did a fantastic job in showing their spirit.

SHADOWS TO LIGHT

Goodbye.	Hello.
Hold On.	Let Go.
Be Cautious.	Be Bold
Keep Warm.	Risk the Cold.
Plan Each Step.	Take a Chance.
Life's a Chore.	Life's a Dance.
Work for Gain.	Work to share.
Play to Win.	Lose With Flair.
Life is this.	Life is That.
You're ahead.	You fall flat.
You are Human.	Be Glad.
Sometimes Human.	Means Sad.

It's an imperfect world
So we're imperfect, too.
Just be sure you are heading
On a course that is true.

Be courageous. Be honest,
Though you may stand alone.
Keep clear thought as you journey
Of your heavenly home.

We wish you successes —
That you reach every goal,
But the best prayer we offer?
... Lasting joy in your soul! J.E.

Love to you all

To Our Son:

Charles H. Lewis III

I hope we've given you enough love to subtain you a life time. A good religious up bringing, space to grow, knowledge and learning experience to be whatever you choose. Goodtimes as well as bad times, wisdom to conquer life's many pitfalls. To take all the "I told you so's" in stride. To have fantasies and dreams but study hard and make them a reality. Thank God for you,
we are proud of you.

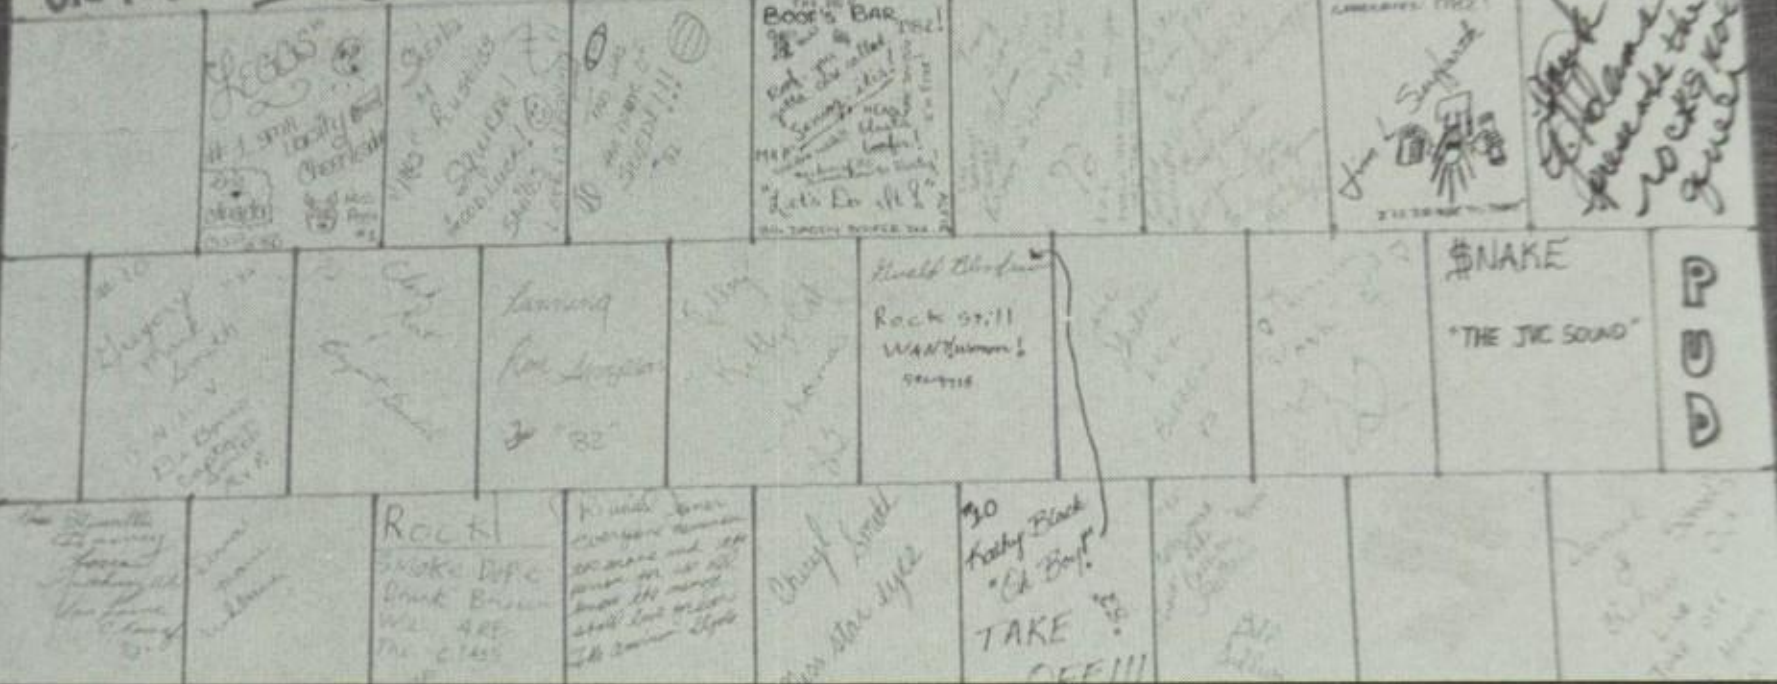

Congratulation

Love

Call me "Joe Cool"

My mouth feels minty fresh.

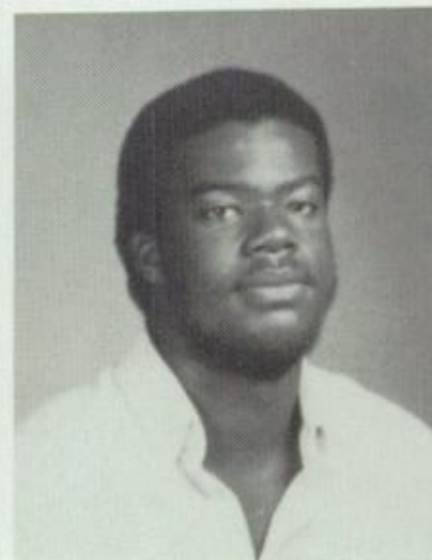

Guess who??

Did you have a hard night last night?

Let's get physical.

POT SHOTS

For occasional discomfort ...

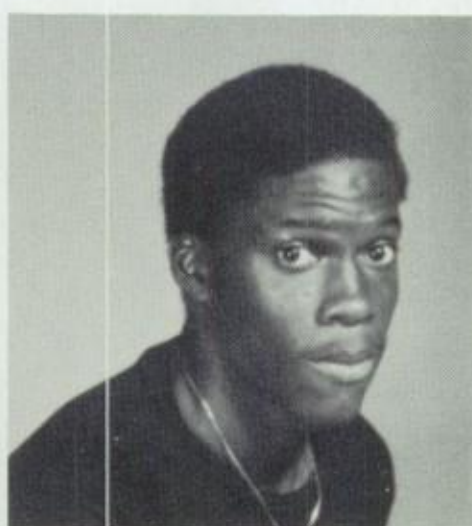

Smile, your on Candid Camera!

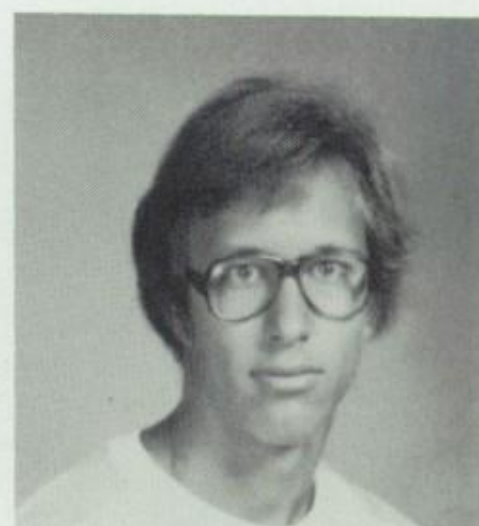

Do you always take pouting lessons from Nicki?

Come on, we're on the same team.

The winds have calmed down since Craig's mouth is shut.

Guess who didn't have his coffee today.

Look ma, no cavities!

We would like to thank everyone on the Yearbook staff, and, advisor Karen Korpi for all their hard work during the year. Through all the rushed deadlines and trying to sell yearbooks and ads, we all managed to keep a hold on our sanity (at least I think everyone did). Special thanks to Mr. John Devaney for all the lovely photographs he contributed to this year's yearbook and for his work on the divider pages. Special thanks, also, to David Hudgins and Pepin Carolan for lending us their artistic abilities.

We thank you,
Daniel J. Behen
Edward J. Theile
